THURSDAY EVENING. JAN. 5 1899.

GOVERNOR SAYERS Of Texas was right when he said he hoped Senator Quay would be re-elected, as he is a true representative of the republican party of Pennsylvania. This poses as a free and equal country in which every man was not only born, but remains, as good as every other man. Of course such an idea is ridiculously absurd, but as it is the doctrine of the majority of the voters, and as in such a country the majority should rule, the overwhelming republican majority in Pennsylvania have the right to send any man they choose to the U. S. Senate, even if he be a second Barabbas. That a country whose laws are, made by such men can expect to prosper, is believed only by those who having eyes, keep them closed to what is going on before them.

THE Russian bishop of Alaska has written a letter to President McKinley in reference to the people of that territory, in which he says:

"In the name of humanity, of justice and freedom-of those very blessingfor the sake of which you declared war against Spain-will you be acting consistently if while waging war for the liberty of Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines for their human rights you ignore all these things at home, in a part of your own country which has been waiting thirty years for the blessings promised to it.'

As Mr. McKinley goes to church regularly, he has often heard that the man who doesn't provide for his own household first, is worse than a heathen, and the bishop's letter may possibly remind him of the biblical truth referred to.

MR. McKINLEY was elected with the plain understanding that he was pledged to reform the currency system of the country, which, by making money scarce among the people and plentiful in Wall street, tended to continue and increase business depression and to decrease the nature of everything else except money and bonds. But though the present session of Congress will expire in less than eight weeks, nothing has yet been done toward improving the currency system. The bolters assigned the pledge referred to as their reason for deserting the democratic party. If they were sincere, they must feel ashamed of their gullibility.

IT Is Now announced that the President will insult all the Irish citizens of this country by appointing Mr. Choate U. S. Ambassador to the British gov eroment, as that gentleman, only a short time ago, said all the Irish here should pack their duds and go back home. There never were many Irish republicans, barring, of course, the professional ones, and there will be fewer when it is known that Mr. Choate's appointment to the position referred to was ever seriously considered.

THAT American political leaders no: follow, and not lead, is proved by thfact that Senator Perkins, republican, of California, though he says he knows the annexation of the Philippines will be injurious to the interests of this country, will vote for it, and not do as Senators in the earlier and better days of the country used to do when instructed by the legislatures of their States to support deleterious measures, either disregard such linstructions or resign their seats.

A REPUBLICAN expansionist newspaper says an American citizen has the right to go wherever trade and enterprise may direct him. The trouble with many Americans s that they isbor under the delusion that th laws of their country apply to the whol world, and are not confined, in their opera tion, to the territory subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. Why, even their own highest court has decided, what all reasonable men concede, that every country has the in disputable right to exclude objectionable people, and even the newspaper referred, to supports the law that prohibits industrious and skillful Chiuese from landing on American soil. But neither logic, consistency, 10 common sense is of any consequence to a republican jingo and expansionist.

WILD FROLIC OF A BABOON.-People in the Creighton Theatre, in Omaha, saw a big baboon in a frenzy Tuesday He was at liberty twenty minutes, and during that time caused more damage about the building than several men could have done. Three long pier mirrors were smashed as the special object of his fury. The baboon belongs to a performing troupe. When the stage hands went on the stage Tuesday they were confronted by the animal, who sprang at them, twined his arms about Manager Stewart's legs and threw bim down. He then jumped for another man, who fled. The baboon entered a saloon which is in the building, chasing out the bartender. The animal grasped a bottle of whisky and two bottles of beer on the bar and hurried into a dressing room where he drank part of the whisky and threw the bottle through the mirror. Two adjoining rooms were visited and the mirrors were broken and general ha-voc was wrought. The baboon had his own way until the head of the alleged to have been broken in transit, troupe arrived. Congressman Dingley passed a good night and a change for the better has again been noted. His physicians have again encouraged the family to hope for ultimate recovery.

Just before the House met this morning Congressman Jerry Simpson stepped up before the Speaker's desk, gazed at the U.S. flag that is lining the Speaker's chair, and said: "I am waiting to see some one haul down that flag. Where is its pride now. Mr. Bryan was right when he said yesterday that McKinley's own message convicts him and his party of heartless land grabbing. Col. Henry B. O good of the commis sary Department testified to-day before the War Investigating Commission. His evidence was that the beef which he had issued at Santiago was of good He had eaten much of it himquality. He had eaten much of it him-self. He had heard some complaints but attributed them to the ignorance o the cooks. The refrigerated beef would upon exposure to the air take on green mould which should have been trimmed away. He had seen four quarters of "process" or "embalmed" beef at Tampa. This meat was merely on exhibition by the inventor of the process. No beef of this character was bought by se government and not a pound of it was issued to troops.

The instructions the President has sent to General O.is, in command of the U.S. forces in the Philippines, are to the effect that all the taxes collected here must be deposited with U.S. officers and that the people of those is! ands must obey the orders of such offiers and if they object, must be made to do so by force. Under these in-tructions the Filipinos will evidently hink they have swapped the devil for witch.

Will Starve Rather than Work

Кокомо, Ind., Jan. 5 -There are eighteen tramps in the county jail slowly starving to Two weeks ago the hoboas refused to wo k on the stone pile, and the sheriff put them in jail on a diet of bread and water un-til they signified a willingness to work. At the close of the second week of the strike the jailer reduced the bread supply to two loaves a day for the entire gaug. They declare they will starve to death in their calls, rather than

WHITE HOUSE DINNER .- The Presi dent and Mrs. McKinley gave a State dinner last night in honor of the cabinet, there being invited to meet them other distinguished guests.

The great white and gold dining room was tropical with palms. Garlands of smilax swung from the ceiling and were caught in graceful loops at the base of the chandeliers. The mantels were banked with white roses and ferns, and the mantels above them, as well as those on the side walls, were draped with feathery grees. A mass of pure white reses bedded in a mound of ferns formed the centre-piece of the table, which was decorated florally in white and green, the colors carried out in roses, carnations and curiously beautiful orchids the tint of sea weed. A pretty touch of contrasting color was contributed by the rose-colored wine glasses and by candle caps that were a ternately fil gree silver and pink.

The President escorted Mrs. Hay into dinner and Mrs. McKinley was attended by the Secretary of State.

SENATOR STEWART .- It is stated in Washington by a friend of Senator Stewart that in the event the Senator is defeated for re-election to the Senate, which seems probable, that he may remove his residence from Nevada to Virginia. The Senator has numerous attack was never followed by that di- property interests in the State of Virginia and is the owner of a large farm near Leesburg, which gives to the statement an air of plausibility.
